

CR-INVEST

CR-Invest is a private investment firm acquiring and supporting stable and profitable medium-sized companies to further grow and prosper in the global marketplace. Deploying its over 120 years old family business heritage, its entrepreneurial spirit and highly skilled team, CR-Invest is dedicated to the long-term improvement of its portfolio companies and sustained value creation.

We are currently looking for an Intern M&A/Corporate Finance to start a career at CR-Invest in our Hamburg office. We are offering a unique opportunity to develop her/his skills along the entire investment process by joining a highly successful entrepreneurial team.

Intern M&A/Corporate Finance

Your role

- Supporting the team in origination of potential target companies
- Modelling and reviewing potential target companies
- Conducting market research and transaction analyses
- Preparing presentation and decision documents for management

Your profile

- Student with at least 4 semesters of economics, engineering or natural sciences
- Superior analytical and problem solving skills with strong passion for performance
- High level of energy, drive and ownership combined with a self-driven mentality
- Excellent English and MS Office skills

Our offer

- Dynamic, high-performing and professional environment combined with flat hierarchies
- Entrepreneurial chances and steep learning curve
- Attractive compensation

If you are interested to work in a fascinating, dynamic and demanding environment we are happy to receive your application documents.