

CR-INVEST

CR-Invest is a private investment firm acquiring and supporting stable and profitable medium-sized companies with an turnover between EUR 50 – 150 mio. to further grow and prosper in the global marketplace. CR-Invest ties in with its very successful track record which is based on know-how, dedication and hands-on mentality. These three characteristics enable the CR-Invest team to strategically and operationally support its partner companies.

Intern Strategy & Business Development / Operations

Your role

- Supporting the management of the portfolio company in concrete strategic projects (e.g. market entry abroad)
- Reviewing the complete value chain regarding performance improvement opportunities of the portfolio company
- Supporting in all aspects of the transformation process of the portfolio company (sales, process & production optimization, logistics, etc.)

Your profile

- Bachelor or Master in economics, engineering or natural sciences
- Work experience with a strategy consultancy, investment bank or big 4 auditor
- Superior analytical and financial skills
- High level of energy, drive and ownership combined with a self-driven mentality
- Excellent English and MS Office skills

Our offer

- You will complete the internship in direct cooperation with the management of the portfolio company and the investment manager of CR-Invest at the portfolio company
- Outstanding candidates who inspire us during the internship will receive an offer as Investment / Operations Analyst
- Dynamic, high-performing and professional environment combined with flat hierarchies
- Entrepreneurial chances and steep learning curve

If you are interested to work in a fascinating, dynamic and demanding environment we are happy to receive your application documents.

CR-Invest Management AG

Human Resources • Palmaille 118-120 • DE-22767-Hamburg • Germany

Internship@cr-invest.com • Tel: +41 44 552 18 60